IMPORTANT NOTICES

Please read these notices carefully. If you have any questions, please contact us.

The Insurer's Agent

Ryno Insurance Services, a specialist division of East West Insurance Brokers Pty Ltd, (we, us) act under a binding authority given to us by the insurer/s to arrange, issue and administer policies. When acting under such authorities, we act on behalf of the insurer/s and not for you.

Your Duty of Disclosure

You have a Duty of Disclosure under law which requires that before a policy is entered into, renewed, varied, extended or reinstated, you must give us certain information we need to decide whether to insure you and anyone else under the policy, and on what terms

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

If we ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms, you must tell us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions. You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

Upon renewal of this policy, we may give you a copy of anything you have previously told us and ask you to tell us if it has changed. If we do this, you must tell us about any change or tell us that there is no change.

If you do not tell us about a change to something you have previously told us, you will be taken to have told us that there is no change. You have this duty until we agree to renew the contract.

New Policy

Where you are entering into this policy for the first time, that is, not a policy renewal or variation, you must tell us everything you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to tell us, in answer to the questions we ask. When answering our questions you must be honest. It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else whom you want to be covered by the policy.

Policy Renewal and Variations

You are required before you renew, vary, extend or reinstate your policy, to tell us everything you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know is a matter that is relevant to our decision whether to insure you, and anyone else under the policy, and if so, on what terms. In particular for motor vehicle insurance, driving offences, traffic infringement fines or penalties, and the like received during the insurance period need to be disclosed to us prior to any policy renewal or variation.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to tell us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Change of your risk and/or circumstances

Advise us immediately of any change to the risk or your circumstances e.g. change of vehicle, driver's traffic history including licensing conditions, criminal convictions and bankruptcy, driver's claims history, garaging location, modifications and accessories.

Cooling-off – in respect of retail contracts only

You are entitled to a minimum 14-day cooling-off period from the date cover commences during which you may return the policy and receive a premium refund (less amounts lawfully deducted). This is subject to legal requirements and terms and conditions of the policy. You should check your PDS/Policy Wording and schedule/certificate of insurance when you receive it to be sure you have the cover you need.
